We Build Bridges to the Future As

CFWC President Jeri Boone Is Installed

A highlight of CFWC's 95th Annual Convention was the installation of officers on May 2, at Hyatt Regency Hotel in Burlingame. Tammy Guensler, longtime friend of President Jeri Boone, conducted the beautiful ceremony which was often touched with humor. Tammy's daughter, Chris Reed and Jerry Bond provided appropriate background music. New district presidents were escorted to the stage by their outgoing counterparts, and received new administration pins from CFWC Past President Ruth Schermitzler, who assisted in the ceremony. As each new officer was installed, she received her official pin and a bouquet of red roses.

In accepting the office of CFWC President, Jeri said, "The 1998-2000 Administration will see us through the completion of a 'Century of Service' and the Beginning of another. WE are the Bridge to the Future. WE take the responsibility to assure that this organization, and its mission, are here for the next generation of Federation volunteers.

"To realize that we will be walking the paths pioneered and
